- Alternatively, search for “Ezoic Integration” in your WordPress Plugins ‘Add New’ section. Then, click on ‘Install Now’ (right)

- Navigate to your WordPress Plugins ‘Installed Plugins’ section and find “Ezoic Integration”
- Select “Activate”

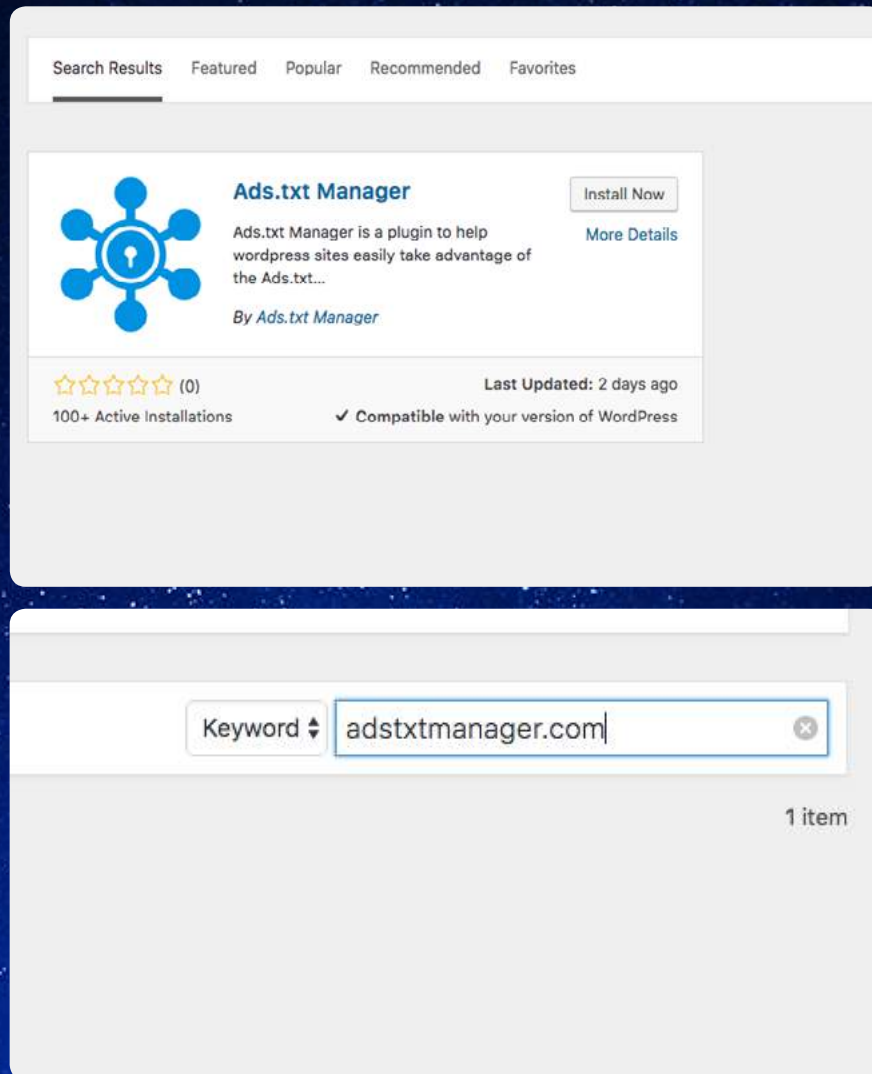

Publishers who have an ads.txt file already must also install the Adstxtmanager.com plugin as well. This allows for Ezoic to utilize your approved advertising partners in your site's ad placeholders

Technical Requirements

- Your adstxtmanager.com ID number

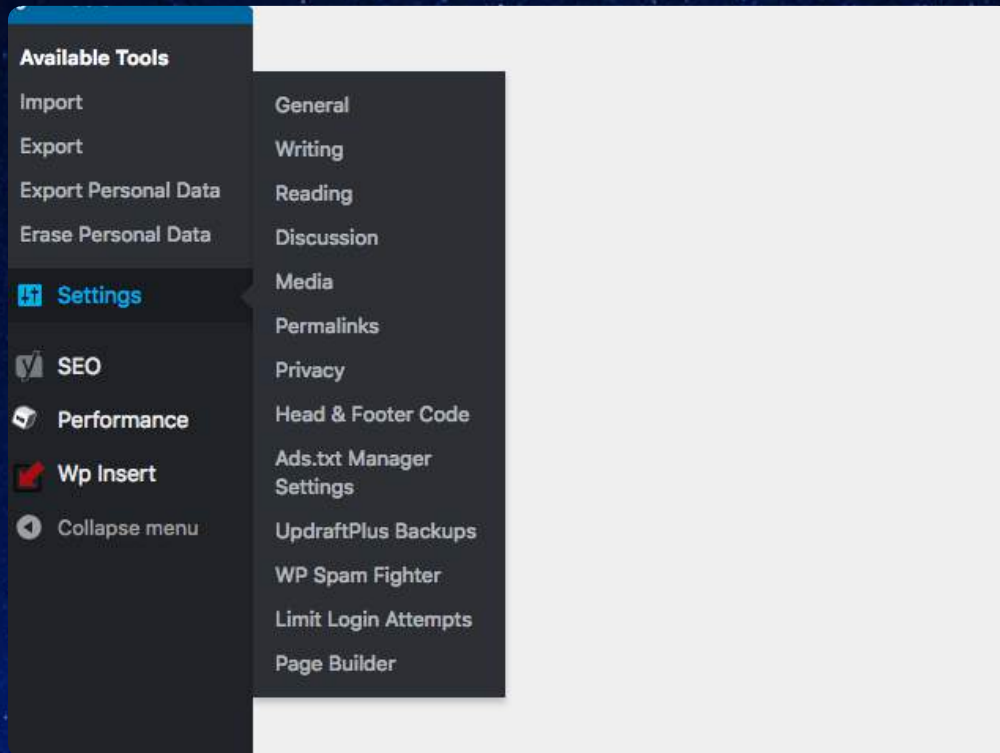

How to integrate

- Return to your WordPress Plugins 'Add New' section
- Search for 'Adstxtmanager.com' and then select 'Install Now'

- Return back to your WordPress Plugins 'Installed Plugins' section and find 'Ads.txt Manager.' Make sure the plugin is Active

- Now, navigate to the 'Settings' tab within WordPress and select "Ads.txt Manager Settings." If you've just activated the ads.txt manager plugin, it may take a moment to appear and you may need to refresh the page

- On this screen, you will be prompted to provide your Ads.txt Manager ID, which should be provided to you through your adstxtmanager.com account. Save changes
